

Cyprus Amateur Men's Open 2025

Eléa GC, Paphos
23 – 25 May 2025

Nail-biting finish to the Cyprus Amateur Men's Open 2025

The 2025 edition of the Cyprus Amateur Men's Open was hosted by the superbly presented Eléa Golf Course, Yeroskipou, Paphos, between 23 and 25 May 2025.

An exceptionally strong field of players this year, contested Day 1 in blistering winds with Qatar's Saleh Al Kabbi with a 2-over 73 leading Austria's Nico Mueller who shot a 3-over 74. Four players trailed the leader by a further shot, all scoring 4-over 75s: Jack Dyer (Cyprus), Andrew Borg (Malta), Noe Kappeller (Switzerland) and Achilleas Lazarides (Cyprus).

Day 2 with calmer but very warm weather help improve the overall scoring. Saleh Al Kabbi with another 2-over 73 and 146 for the tournament increased his lead to 2 strokes from Jack Dyer and Achilleas Lazarides who both shot 2-over 73s and tied for second at 148. Nico Mueller's 4-over 75 dropped him to 4th place with 149. Cyprus' George Kalpakas Jr. improved to 5th place with a 3-over 75 and a total for the tournament of 151, while the best score of the day, a level par 71, was shot by Israel's Itamar Cohen.

Day 3 of the tournament was where all the drama unfolded! Jack Dyer's 1-under 70 and Nico Mueller's 2-under 69 resulted in a tie for the Championship at 218 each, and a play-off finale. However, nobody could foresee the scenario that unfolded, with the first 5 attempts playing the 18th resulting in pars for both players. The tie was eventually settled at the 6th time of asking when Jack Dyer sank his putt for a birdie to claim the title of Cyprus Amateur Men's Open 2025 Champion.

Saleh Al Kabbi's 221 saw him finish in 3rd place with George Kalpakas Jr. – 224, claiming 4th place from Achilleas Lazarides on countback.
